Student Expectations

While traveling with MPLT, students are expected to be representatives of the organizations and their respective schools at all times. All school rules and organization expectations are to be followed.

Expectations include:

- No excessive foul language
- Respect of our peers, instructors and chaperones
- Fulfill any duties assigned by directors
- Report to designated areas on time (follow curfew; no exceptions)
- Wear correct MPLT branded attire
- Do not enter any hotel room not assigned to you

Students are expected to behave professionally and responsibly at all times, especially when in uniform. No members should be out of their assigned areas, running, or engaging in horseplay. Any time the uniform jacket is worn, it is to be zipped completely.
